HELP FOR VICTIMS

(SOLDIERS, ARMY CIVILIANS AND MILITARY DEPENDENTS 18+)

IF YOU HAVE BEEN SEXUALLY ASSAULTED

1

GO TO A SAFE LOCATION AWAY FROM THE PERSON WHO SEXUALLY ASSAULTED YOU

If you're in immediate danger, CALL 911 (inside the U.S.) or your installation's emergency services.

Please know what happened isn't your fault. Nothing you did or didn't do caused this to happen.

2

CONSIDER SEEKING MEDICAL CARE

Seeking medical care may not feel like a priority, especially if you don't have visible physical injuries. However, it can be helpful to receive medical care and/or a sexual assault forensic exam to assess for less visible injuries and risks for sexually transmitted diseases or pregnancy.

3

GET HELP – YOU DON'T HAVE TO GO THROUGH THIS ALONE

If you aren't sure what to do or just want someone to talk to, contact your local SHARP Hotline or DoD Safe Helpline: 877-995-5247.

You can also reach out to the service providers listed on the back of this fact sheet under "Who can help?" You can receive contact information for these providers by contacting DoD Safe Helpline or visiting the DoD Safe Helpline website: www.safehelpline.org

SOLDIERS, ADULT FAMILY MEMBERS AND ARMY CIVILIANS HAVE OPTIONS FOR HOW TO REPORT

Restricted Report

Filing a Restricted Report allows you to confidentially disclose a sexual assault to a SARC or VA without notifying your command or law enforcement. When you file a Restricted Report, you are eligible for:

- Medical treatment
- Sexual assault forensic exam
- Counseling
- Chaplain services
- Special Victims' Counsel
- Legal advocacy
- Victim advocacy

You may change a Restricted Report to an Unrestricted Report at any time.

A victim can file a Restricted Report even if...

- The sexual assault has been previously disclosed to command by the victim, suspect or third party;
- The sexual assault has been reported to law enforcement, to include the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Division, by anyone other than the victim; or
- An investigation is initiated, in progress or closed.

Victims may elect to file a Restricted Report of sexual assault at any time, EXCEPT in cases where the victim:

- Personally reported the incident to law enforcement (including CID); or
- Previously filed an Unrestricted Report with a signed DD Form 2910 (the Victim Reporting Preference Statement) for the same sexual assault.
