Army Information Update

Because information is power, we are informing you each personally and encouraging you to pass it along.

Welcome to “The Digital Front Door for Army Families”

This Army Quality of Life microsite has been reorganized and updated to help families more easily find resources, understand programs, access benefits and be aware of partnerships that are out there for all of us. Rather than creating new content, the site navigates you to where the content lives. The goal is that it does so without requiring you already know a lot about the Army.

As you explore the site, we'd love your feedback:

1. Do you see yourself coming back to this site to help you find an answer or discover a resource?
2. Would you recommend this site to someone new to the Army?
If not, can you tell us why?
3. Was the site easy to navigate on a computer, a phone and an iPad?
4. Do the six categories properly capture the top priorities and challenges for families on their Army journey? Are we missing something?
5. Within each category, was the information easy to understand?

Send Feedback to:

1. Share it with your Command Family Readiness Rep or pass it up through your SFRG
2. Email it to any of these three email addresses:
