

APRIL 2026

Army Information Update

Because information is power, we are informing you personally and inspiring you to pass it along.

We chose to highlight relationships, connections, and moving resources together this April because they naturally go hand in hand. With PCS season just ahead, we know every move brings its own challenges, whether it's your first or your 10th. Having the right support—and remembering you're not alone—can help lighten the load and make this season of change a little easier to navigate.

April 7-8: A FREE Virtual Summit designed for Military Families. Ready- Set-Connect: Building Bonds for Readiness

Join Military OneSource for this free, two-day virtual relationship summit and hear from experts, join real conversations and discover resources to help strengthen the relationships in your life. Stronger bonds—with our partners, our Families and ourselves—lead to greater readiness.
